Community-Building Amenities

On Main Street, the immediate retail spaces will be revitalized, and the landmark Loew's Main Street Theater façade and black box theater that attaches to 360 Huguenot will be completely restored.

A beloved player in the creative community of New Rochelle, the Theater marks an important commitment to elevate the artistic and social life of the neighborhood.

The residents will also benefit from the restoration of the block below the building. When completed, the area that immediately surrounds 360 Huguenot will be home to artisanal cafes, coffee shops, and everyday essentials.

Located along a quaint stretch of Main Street, it enjoys close proximity to New Rochelle's rapidly evolving downtown area, while also nearing the Long Island Sound.
